Ascendant Report

Description

Ascendant is one of the most sought concepts in astrology when it comes to predicting the minute events in your life. At the time of birth, the sign that rises in the sky is the person's ascendant. It helps in making predictions about the minute events, unlike your Moon or Sun sign that help in making weekly, monthly or yearly predictions for you. Your ascendant is Taurus

Personality

Those born with the Taurus ascendant are relatively introverted, despite the fact they represent the animal bull. These people like to create their own little world stud with luxuries and comfort. However, they are also aware of the fact that having these luxuries will require hard work and commitment and thus always try to achieve greater and better things in life. Despite being an introvert, Taurus ascendants are really friendly and fun-loving. These people also have a great sense of humor, and you could never get bored when around them. However, one should know that these people never reveal all of them to anybody. They have their secrets which they try to deal with personally. No matter how close you are with a Taurus ascendant, you would hardly know about their sorrows.

Physical

Ruled by the planet Venus, Taurus ascendants possess a short physique that is inclined to carelessness. They are generally gifted with a lovely face, full of large, gleaming eyes, nicely formed ears, nose, and seductive lips. In terms of physical shape, they are not too lucky. They have a square-shaped figure with no pleasing curves and a full-fat figure, with the possibility of a mark somewhat on the sides or back. People born with Taurus rising have a delightful persona. These natives also have large, powerful necks. Consider a bull to understand why Taurus Ascendants possess such a powerful appearance.

Health

The Taurus natives usually are good with health for the most part of their life. But they, too, have their weak spots in various instances. The people born under the rising sign of Taurus are prone to nervous system issues. Having a good sleep is very important for these people as if they don't, they develop skin problems faster than anyone else. Their romance with intimacy can leave them suffering from sexual diseases. Also, these people should not ignore problems when in the bladder, neck, or chest area.

Astrotalk Kundli Report

Career

Taurus rising people are absolutely eager to put in the effort and persevere in order to succeed, but their desire for stability and ease of mind leads them to choose a steady income with little chance of loss. It delights them to work effectively with genuine stuff rather than theoretical ideas. They prefer to see actual outcomes. Anything that retains them tied to the ground is beneficial to them. Working in the food or in the construction industry would be great for the people who are Taurus ascendants. They don't wish to be pressured when working and require time to collect information and process it properly since they dislike making mistakes. Plus, they will be frustrated and exhausted by a fast-paced profession that emphasizes quantity above quality.

Relationship

When it comes to relationships, a Taurus ascendant is very sensual, aka a sex lover. However, they move very cautiously when it comes to love and relationships. They always seek long-lasting love as they don't like change. They will never judge you based on your looks but personality. These people are very firm about their values and principles in life. It is one of their magnetic qualities that attract others. On the downside, they can be really impulsive and unreasonable at times, which is one thing that could hamper their relationship. However, once the moment passes by, they often find themselves the culprit. Thus it is recommended that Taurus ascendants think well before they speak.

Rudraksha Suggestion Report

This Rudraksha suggestion report aims to help you choose the most suitable Rudraksha that you can wear to have the blessings of Lord Shiva. This report considers the Nakshatra that you were born in to suggest the most appropriate Rudraksha for you. Wearing the recommended Rudraksha shall shield you against the negative energies and help retain positivity in your life.

Rudraksha & its importance

Rudraksha beads are produced by the 'Rudraksha Tree' scientifically called Elaeocarpus. The tree grows at a certain altitude in the mountains, especially the Himalayas - the home to Lord Shiva. The seeds are known to have very unique vibrations that aid the spiritual and physical growth of the wearer. In Hindu scriptures, it is mentioned that the one who wears Rudraksha is blessed with the virtues of Dharma, Artha, Kama, and Moksha. Wearing Rudraksha, in fact, allows the wearer to connect with Lord Shiva and his divine energies.

It is a belief that the wearer of Rudraksha not only pleases Lord Shiva but also Goddess Durga, Lord Indra, Lord Brahma, Lord Vishnu, Lord Ganesh, Lord Kartikeya, Lord Aditya, and many other deities. If you want to condemn your sins or faults and purify your life, a Rudraksha is a good tool to begin with. It is said that a person's sins burn down to ashes by merely looking at a Rudraksha. On the other hand, wearing a Rudraksha helps in the fulfilment of the desires of the wearer.

The number of faces a Rudraksha has varies from 1-Mukhi to 21-Mukhi, all of which are used for different purposes. Henceforth, it is not advisable to buy any Rudraksha of your choice, wear it, and expect it to work. In fact, wearing the wrong Rudraksha can disturb a native's life by exposing him to wrong energies or simply overpowering a certain planet or leaving it strengthless. Therefore, it is very important that you get a consultation from an astrologer to astrologically decide the most suitable Rudraksha for yourself.

Astrotalk Kundli Report

Shani Sade Sati: Rising Phase

With Saturn transiting in the 12th house of your Kundli from the Moon, the movement marks the beginning of the Shani Sade Sati phase for you. During this period, you need to be cautious of instances that can lead to financial losses, accidents, relationship woes, bad health and even deprivation. During the Shani Sade Sati phase, you need to rein your actions and words, especially at your workplace, or else you will have to face challenges in adjusting to the professional scenario. On the domestic front, family and finance-related tensions may prevail. If trying to get married, Saturn's nature of dealy may overpower that desire of yours. In such instances, being patient will come to your emotional aid. Consider the Shani Sade Sati phase for working hard towards your dreams, as Shani rewards you based on your karma and hard work. You are advised not to take high risks in business matters in this period.

Shani Sade Sati: Peak Phase

As you tread into the peak phase of Shani Sade Sati, things might get a bit tough for you hereafter. Yet, acknowledging the tough as a challenge is advised. Saturn transiting over the natal Moon from here may complicate certain prevalent health woes. Your immune system may show unprecedented weakness. Hence, do follow a proper diet and an active lifestyle. A teen or working adult may suffer from depression, unknown fear or phobia, especially of losing their source of income during this phase. You also need to be cautious about keeping your societal image intact during this phase. On the bright side, the peak Shani Sade Sati period will incline you towards your spiritual side. You will feel more peaceful if you surrender to God. Take spiritual tours during this period with your spouse.

Shani Sade Sati: Setting Phase

The setting period of Shani's Sade Sati has begun for you with Saturn moving into the 2nd house from the natal Moon. The period marks financial and domestic woes but less severe in form. However, professional decisions should be made after careful consultation with expert stakeholders. Also, you need to keep your hands tight when it comes to spending money, as expenses might soar for you in this phase of Shani Sade Sati. Sudden financial losses and fear of theft are also a possibility. A lot of attention needs to be diverted towards family and your own self, as if you don't do so, small problems will turn into bigger problems. There will be some delay in getting the results you desire, but good things will surely happen for you. If possible, give up any bad habits such as smoking and drinking to keep Saturn happy.
